Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, George Summers opened the doors of Mitchell Iron and Supply Company on September 22, 1884; and,

WHEREAS, The Summers family has owned and operated Mitchell Iron and Supply Company for one hundred years, surviving even the great depression because of the quality products and service for which the company is renowned; and,

WHEREAS, For an entire century, the company has remained in the same location in downtown Mitchell, although the current facility is considerably larger than the one George Summers first founded; and,

WHEREAS, Five generations of Summers--first George, then Frank, then D. F. and C. H., then Barney and Chuck II, and finally Scott--have made service their watchword as they open their doors at all hours to provide that one little part which can keep that one farmer going at a critical time; and,

WHEREAS, Mitchell Iron and Supply Company, a wholesale and retail establishment which specializes in farm and industrial supplies, has been welding and machining for those same customers these past hundred years; and,

WHEREAS, The Summers family will be celebrating a century of continuous operation of Mitchell Iron and Supply Company by holding an open house on September 20 and 21, and by holding a family celebration on September 22:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 20 and 21, 1984, as

and September 22, 1984, as

in South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Four
